

Our travellers circle the earth

The ATPI Group analysed the travel patterns of its 50 top travelling clients in 2015

The total mileage of the top 50 business travellers during 2015 was

4,503,455 miles

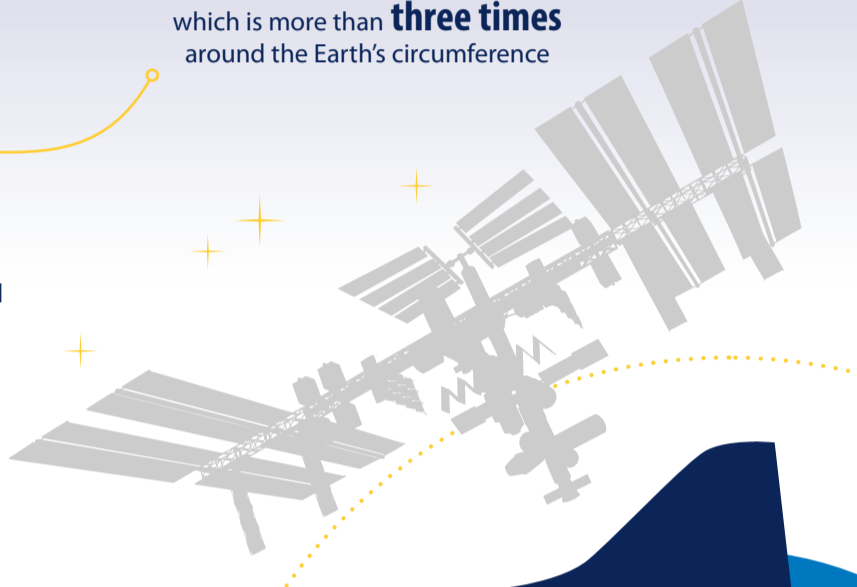

The average mileage per person of the top 50 travellers which is more than three times around the Earth's circumference

365

The equivalent to travelling to the International Space Station (ISS) which is 250 miles above Planet Earth

2015's top business traveller by miles travelled the equivalent of 10 times the circumference of the Earth

= 261,611 miles

Which is greater than the distance between the Earth and the Moon in one year

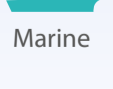

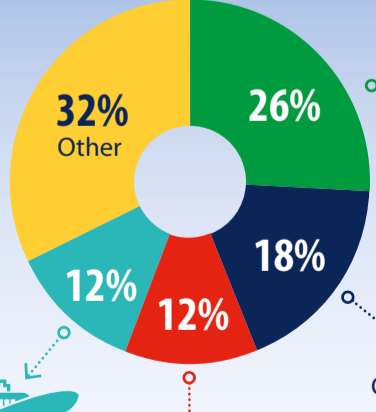

The daily travel equivalent of the top business traveller by miles

That's the distance between London and Venice every day of the year

The main industries that employ our top 50 business travellers are:

5

The highest number of trips taken in 2015 by a single individual was 157 – that's more than one every three days!

